Subject: Spring 2007 HUCTW Education Fund applications are due JUNE 10th

Dear HUCTW member!

Have you taken a class outside of Harvard this Spring? If so, you might be eligible for a Spring 2007 HU/HUCTW Education Fund award. Applications are due June 10th. The Education Fund was negotiated in 1989 in our first contract, to assist staff with education costs and to promote career development.

To be eligible for an award, you must be part of the HUCTW bargaining unit, AND:

1) taking a class outside of Harvard in connection with a job related certificate or degree program

OR

2) taking a class outside of Harvard in connection with a certificate or degree program which though not job related may aid in pursuing a career at Harvard

OR

3) an employee of the Harvard Forest, Concord Field Station, NERPRC, or Brockton VA. taking any type of class at a degree or certificate granting institution

4) pursuing professional accreditation, conference fees, auditing, distance learning & test preparation.

The amount of an award will be 50% of the cost of tuition for one course.
