Subject: HUCTW Office moves to its new location

Dear HUCTW members,

This week the HUCTW Office will be moving to its new location!

Beginning at midnight tonight, Monday, July 2, our telephone and e-mail systems will be down and unavailable for a short time. We expect these systems to be restored some time on Tuesday, July 3.

Our office location will be closed this week as movers are doing their work--the office location will reopen on Monday, July 9. We will be checking voicemail and e-mail while the office location is closed.

We thank you for your patience!
