

Sent: Fri 10/12/2007
From: HUCTW Info
To: HUCTW Membership
Subject: Save the date for HUCTW Writes! 3

---

Dear HUCTW members,

HUCTW Writes! 3 is in the works! Save the date: Wednesday, November 7, from 5:45-7:45, Gund Hall, Graduate School of Design, The Stubbins Room (#112) off the Lobby. As usual, it will be a two-part program, but this time it will be a little different. For the event poster and info on past events, see our web page at: http://www.huctw.org/scrapbook/writes/writes\_top.htm

As usual, we will have our open mike in the second part of the evening, so bring your poems or short prose pieces. But rather than have featured readers this time, we thought we'd have a theme:

WRITING ON WORK AND UNIONS. The first part of the program will be a recital of poems and short prose pieces about work life and/or unions. We're hoping that members will want to give some expression to that great mixture of feelings and thoughts we have about our working lives.

Here's how you can participate in the first part of the program--contact the conveners with the info at the end of this message:

- By sending us a favorite piece on work or unions you'd like to have read. (Remember, not too long.)
- By volunteering to be a reader – we'll have texts for you to read. If you have training in oratory, that's wonderful. If not, and you just want to read, that's great too. We'll try to pair you up with something that you would particularly like to read.

In the open mike portion, feel free to bring a piece on ANY THEME: it doesn't have to be about work at all!

So send us your favorite piece on work or unions, and sign-up for the open mike. We hope to see many of you there on Nov. 7th at 5:45pm!

The HUCTW Writes! conveners:
Emily Scudder, Jeanne Lafferty, Jim Henle
huctwwrites@mindspring.com
University Mail: HUCTW Writes! 15 Mt. Auburn Street, Cambridge