Subject: HUCTW and the economy

Dear HUCTW Member,

In the last few weeks, many questions and concerns have arisen about the impact of the world economic situation on Harvard and on our jobs. HUCTW has issued an important communication about the University's financial situation and ideas for dealing with economic difficulties now and in the future.

Please visit the HUCTW website to view the new Union statement, as well as a set of "Frequently Asked Questions" about the economy and our employment security:

HUCTW leaders are interested to hear your ideas and questions about these issues. Please do not hesitate to talk with an HUCTW Organizer or Union Representative in your area. You can also reply to this email at huctw.info@huctw.org or call at 617-661-8289.
